for the North Riding, and they and their friends are working hard. Mr. Patterson, the Opposition candidate is trying to rob Mr. Prince of the honor of having obtained a division of the County, without success, as all the letters that Mr. TOBACCO Patterson ever wrote, would have had no effect, if our representative had opposed Meerschaum & Other Pipes the measure. Mr. Prince goes into the contest with much better prospects than his opponent, and a strong united effort on the part of his friends will give him a decisive majority. We were informed this week that Mr. Blake was to address a meeting in Windsor, on Saturday

THE SOUTH RIDING.

The two candidates for the South Riding are now fairly before us, and the with considerable success in his canvass, grounds for complaint, and merely contest between them has begun in earnest. Col. As & present Government have in every possible way endeavored to do justice to I sex, we should show our appreciation their policy, by returning a friend theirs, to support them in the next Pro> vincial Parliament. Mr. Lewis Wigle, the candidate of the Conservative party, is a man also esteemed by all his acquaintances, for his good private and public qualities. promises to give all measures a libernl support, but as we must judge a man by the company he keeps, and as he is the nominee of men who have always worked heart and soul against the present administration, there is very little doubt where Mr. Wigle would be found, on a test question in the house. Mr. Wigle and his friends are endeavoring to make the election turn on personal considerations, but we are sure the electors will not thus be misled, but will consider the great political principles at stake, and endorse the honest administration of public essairs by Mr. Mownt, by voting for Mr. Gore Atkin.

THEIR ARGUMENTS.

Two arguments, and only two against the Mowat Administration seem to be the whole stock-in-trade of Lewis Wigle and his friends in the present political contest. These are, first, the publication of the quarterly Returns of Convictions a Government paper, at a greater price than formerly charged, and second, the alleged unfair manner in which Essex has been treated in the M. L. Fund settlement. As to the first of these complaints, it is stated by Mr. Wigle and his friends that the printing of the Convictions costs the County nearly $800 per annum, whereas formerly it did not cost one-half of that amount. Now we ven- lon, retired. 168 votes were polled. ture to say that if the cost to the County of this work is $800, it is the fault of the Bros to thank his many customers for past Clerk of the Peace, in allowing the news. The present Ontario Government is the best that we have ever had, and had passed the best measures we had ever known.

The Government that preceded them had been forced to adopt their best measures, under pressure from the Opposition. He for the Queen, Atkin and McGregor. reviewed the manner in which John Sandfield had acted, and how he was depower, and he, and Mr. Mowat his successor, had settled the surplus and M. Mr. Atkin had told them that he came out as a supporter of the present Government, but did not seem to understand what responsible Government was. John Sandfield's Government had accumulated a surplus of $8,-810,000, and had set apart a large amoun for Railways, and being a responsible Government, had expended it in assisting Railways to the extent of $1,500,000. They had loaned about $100,000 on farms, in this way, last year. It had been represented that he had committed a tremendons crime when he gave 200 workmen on the Central Prison a hulfholiday to attend a nomination, and if the Opposition had had their way he would ation. have been executed for it. But in this he had only followed the example of the Premier of Great Britain who gave 10 000 Government workmen a half holiday at election times. Mr. Cameron the leader of the Opposition who brought the charge against him had never returned to the Province any of his salary as a Crown Minister, for the time he was attending to his professional duties, and yet he begrudged the pittance the workmen received. Then as to Mr. Pattison who conducted the Mail, which was his (McKellar's) own organ, and gave him a great deal of free advertising, still he must expose the vagaries of that gentleman. Mr. Pattison while serving the country as Mr. Cameron's private secretary, went away and attended to other business but still drew his salary from the public chest, but then Pattison considered himself a sort of superior being, not to be compared with common workmen. In regard to the Agricultural farm he would say that it was working well. and the only men who complained of it were a number of briefless, brainless worthless lawyers. His time would not permit him to enter into that anestion today but he soon hoped to have another one :opportunity of addressing them on this question.
